The 2003 Barnwarming was held at the Livingston County Fairgrounds on October 25, 2003. Barnwarming is our chapter's annual fundraiser. It is a chance for everyone in the chapter to get out and get involved in the community to raise money for our FFA chapter. This is also a good chance for FFA members to get together, work together, and have a GREAT time!

Wow! What a successful year our chapter had. We had a record breaking year of raising $16,494 between all the class and donations. But of course, guess who won the contest? Give up, the class of 2005, for the third year in a row.

This years representatives for the freshman class of 2007 were Amanda Quinn and Ethan Beck, for the sophomores class of 2006 were Gabby Gates and Jacob Vandusen, for the JUNIOR class of 2005 were Kelley Gengelbach and Tyler Jones, and for the Senior class of 2004 were Brooklyn Lollar and Zach Walker. The freshman class of 2007 raised a total of $3,481 with an average of $60.02 per member. The sophomore class of 2006 raised a total of $4,395 with an average of $64.62 per member. The JUNIOR class of 2005 raised a total of $6,138 with an average of $136.41 per member. Finally, the senior class of 2004 raised a total of $2,480 with an average of $77.50 per member.

The average per member of each class was what determined which class was the winner of this years Barnwarming and which representatives were crowned king and queen. Fourth place this year went to the freshman class of 2007, third place went to the sophomore class of 2006, second place went to the senior class of 2004, and this years winner went to the junior class of 2005.

At the conclusion of the exhausting weeks of raising money we have a dance and an amazing hay tunnel which is always a big highlight. The Chillicothe FFA chapter would like to thank the community for supporting our efforts once again. It was greatly appreciated and helpful to our chapter.
